

STATE

COUNTY

TOWN OR VICINITY

J
CALIFORNIA

Amador

Jackson Gate (Jackson Gate Rd.,
E. side, 1 mi. No. Jackson) 1P

INDEX NUMBER

MONUMENT

CAL, 3-JAKGA, 1-

Chichizola Store

REPRESENTED IN NEGATIVE FILE

H.A.B.S. SURVEY NO.

Cal 1513

History - In an interview with A. Chichizola at Jackson Gate on February 9, 1938, he stated that his grandfather, Augustino Chichizola, built the store in 1853 on the spot where he first sold to the miners in 1850. His grandfather and father had come in by pack train that first year, but after that they drove to Sacramento in their own wagon and back, a

PUBLISHED
PHOTOGRAPHSPUBLISHED
DRAWINGS

(over)

six-day trip. A Chichizola still kept the store as general merchandise, hardware and dry goods store in 1938. Description - Thick stone walls covered with cement. Gabled roof with attic; 3 iron doors front; on sides. References - Rensch, Historic Spots in California, 1948, p. 71; Div. of Mines, Geologic Guidebook, p. 129; A. Chichizola, H. E. Rensch interview, Feb. 9, 1938, at Jackson Gate; Amador County Directory, 1869. Author of Card - H. E. Rensch, Historian, 2225 W. Capitol Ave., West Sacramento, California, July 1961.